Re: CC Docket No. 94-102
Ex Parte Presentation

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On Tuesday, October 4, 2005, Luisa L. Lancetti, Vice President – Government Affairs, Wireless Regulatory, Sprint Nextel Corporation (“Sprint Nextel”) and I held separate meetings with Fred Campbell, interim legal advisor to Chairman Kevin Martin, and Barry Ohlson, Senior Legal Advisor to Commissioner Jonathan Adelstein, regarding Sprint Nextel’s September 29, 2005 Request for Limited Waiver of the Commission’s Enhanced 911 (“E911”) rules. On Wednesday, October 5, 2005, Ms. Lancetti and I met with John Giusti, interim legal advisor to Commissioner Michael Copps, also regarding this limited waiver request.

In these meetings, we explained that there is good cause for granting Sprint Nextel a limited and temporary waiver of the December 31, 2005 E911 implementation deadline, which requires that 95% of Sprint Nextel’s active subscriber handsets be location capable. As detailed in its September 29 request, Sprint Nextel’s inability to meet the December 2005 benchmark for its iDEN network is the result of a number of factors beyond its control, including the effects of a latent software defect in the GPS-enabled handsets provided by Motorola. We also described Sprint Nextel’s unprecedented efforts to overcome these factors and comply with the December 2005 requirement, as well the additional steps that Sprint Nextel will take in order to meet the Commission’s 95% benchmark by December 31, 2007.
